Harpers is a very effective pan (wine) industry telescope that enables us to keep current and informed of trends in the industry. Simply, as a small and concise team we don't have the resources to scour the earth or undertake extensive research to make strategic decisions but Harpers articles and analysis give us that information. It also educates us on segments of our industry that we don't always relate to but can be useful, educational and even entertaining."

BESPOKE PROJECTS

Utilising Harpers respected voice and reach we are able to tailor events and projects to your needs, sharing the experience and your brand values with our audience. Some examples are :-

ROUND TABLES / WEBINARS

Round tables / webinars are an amazing way to demonstrate thought leadership and create a connection with your target sector. Primarily a face2face discussion, they also allow excellent branding to our wider audience and add value to your engagement with them. Venue sourcing, consultation on topics and theme, invitations and write up are all covered as part of the package

BUYERS TRIPS

It's always great to get buyers out to experience wineries and wine fairs in situ; to meet the winemakers and really engage with the culture of the wine region. A partnership with Harpers for your buyers trip will give that added coverage in either magazine or website to convey share the thoughts of those buyers to our audience - their peers and likeminded potential buyers.

DIGITAL BROCHURES

Ideal for regional bodies or awards announcements, a digital brochure offers more than just an advertorial. Our in house design team and editorial support can bring what might otherwise be a list of names to life with an engaging format, images and introductions to share with our audience as well as your wider members. We make our digital brochure free to view and download for all via our website.

MINI TASTINGS

A tasting bringing together a select sector of the trade to taste through a range of similar wines, either from a region or grape variety is an excellent chance to raise awareness and provide in market tasting notes and feedback. With Harpers organising the invitations, venue and write up of findings this is a much appreciated opportunity for members of the trade to discover a new region

A pledge from the drinks trade

TESTIMONIALS:

"We are a relatively new business. This puts us in a good position to build an organisation that is fit for the future. Signing up to the Harpers Sustainability Charter is exactly that, working together to drive change, share best practice, raise awareness and challenge the wider industry. We can do our bit as North South Wines, but together as an industry we can achieve so much more."

Kim Wilson, MD at North South Wines

"The launch of the Harpers Sustainability Charter coincided with Enotria & Coe's own refocusing on sustainability as a key strategic objective for the business. Having the opportunity to document and share this journey through the Harpers Sustainability Charter was great timing."

Zippy Bakowska, head of marketing at Enotria & Coe

"Harpers has led the way in galvanising different sectors of the trade, encouraging the dissemination of best practices and shared objectives. Thanks to the passion and dedication of the Harpers Sustainability Charter's signatories, a once high-minded goal is becoming a plausible reality."

Marta Rivera, sustainability manager at Alliance Wine

We offer 3 levels of partnership from being an integral part of our plans for the year as a Sustainable Champion, using our extensive sustainable coverage to advance your branding as a key Sustainable Partner, and Enhanced Listings to add something extra to your commitment to our Charter. We hope that through the Harpers Sustainability Charter, our signatories and partners, we will be able to show how the drinks trade is working together to make a real difference to moving towards a sustainable future.

Contact Stuart Sadler / Lee Sharkey for full Sustainability Charter Sponsorship options

Harpers is a great source of information for us that allows us to give better advice to our French producers, and we were very happy to work with the Harpers team to promote VIN, the UK's largest French wine tasting, in 2023. We saw a significant uptick in sign-ups around each action, and Lee is always helpful, reactive & full of new ideas.

CREATIVE GUIDE

- Be compelling. Things like images, brand colors, and clear text help banner ads stand out.
- Be concise. Make sure your message sticks. Always have your brand visible.
- Be clear. You don't have a lot of space to work with. Don't try to say too much; the ad may end up looking cluttered. Instead, clearly communicate a single marketing message about a product. The need for clarity goes for call-to-actions, too.

The image shows a screenshot of the Harpers.co.uk website with several ad units highlighted by green vertical bars and text. The website content includes a search bar, navigation menu, a 'Super Leaderboard' banner for 'PORT GRAND TASTING 2022', a 'Breaking News' section with articles like 'St Austell Brewery agrees investment with Harbour Brewing Co', a 'News' section with articles like 'Friday read: Not a match - why is sherry failing to find its groove?', and a 'Newsletter' sign-up form. A large yellow box labeled 'Mid Page Unit (MPU)' is positioned in the middle of the page.
